

Jesus told his disciples the story of the landowner who paid everyone the same amount of money no matter how many hours they worked. This is how God's generosity is to all who believe in him and want to live with him in Heaven.