Welcome!

September 24, 2017

Welcome!

The Outrageous Generosity of God...“How we react to the way the landholder paid the men he hired to work in his vineyard depends on the state of our own hearts. We could respond, “Oh, what a generous employer!” or we could say, “Isn’t that terribly unfair?” Treasures Uncovered – Word Among Us Press

Many Thanks

The family of Karen Kern wishes to extend their sincere appreciation for all the prayers, thoughts, and words of kindness and support received from our St. Joseph Parish family. Your thoughtfulness was a "warm embrace" as we went through this difficult time in our family. Thanks to Fr. Tom for the beautiful service, special thanks to Shirley for her musical contributions and thanks to all who participated in the luncheon. May God bless you all. The Kern Family

Sincere Appreciation

The family of Mary Jane Jenior wants to express their heart-felt thanks to our fellow parishioners at St. Joseph for their compassion, support, and help with the death of our mother. Special thanks to Fr. Tom for the beautiful service, to the servers who fluently went about their ministry, to Shirley and Carol for the soothing music pieces; to Anita Workman for her work in the funeral preparations, to the luncheon committee for their labors and to all who donated food for the luncheon. Also, a thank you to the cemetery crew whose efficiency made possible a smooth transition for the committal service. Thanks to all, and may God continue to bless you.

Many Thanks From the Catholic War Vets

The Catholic War Vets would like to thank everyone who attended the Pancake Breakfast last Sunday. It was a big success. Thanks to all our workers who gave up their Sunday morning to help us. We would like to extend special thanks to Judy and Kurt Knapp, and Joan Stalter for all their valuable help.

We also would like to extend an enormous thank you to Dumas Meats for their contribution to the breakfast via the Meat Raffle. And the winners of the Dumas Meat Raffle were: Paul Pinke, Veronica Wise, Mary Lohr, and Tina Snodgrass. Congratulations! Again, to all who helped to make this the success it was we thank you and St. Joseph School thanks you.
