Hold the Date

Would you like to travel to India and not leave the area? Would you like to hear about things you've only seen in books? You now have that chance. Sunday, February 11th, at 2:00 PM in Gaudete Hall, Anita Workman, along with travel companions Carol Kern, and Eleanore Horning will hold a slide presentation of their month-long journey through India. I am sure this will be a very interesting, and informative presentation. Come with your inquisitiveness and questions. All are most welcome.

Last Year's Palm

This Sunday and next Sunday you have the opportunity to bring in last year's palm from your homes. (Ash Wednesday is 10 days away). Last year's palms are burnt to make the ashes for Ash Wednesday. There are a couple of containers for you to place the palm in at the back of church behind the last pew at the foot of the middle column.

Lenten Altar Cloth

This year we will not create a new altar cloth, but will use last year's since it turned out so well for the altar. You will however, be given the opportunity to add additional concerns to the unused 5 x 5 squares on the cloth the weekend of February 10th and 11th, just prior to the beginning of Lent. We will provide pens for writing your intercessions on the cloth. The cloth will then be placed on the altar beginning Ash Wednesday, February 14th. Please take the opportunity to pray before each Mass during Lent for the intentions placed on this cloth.

2018 First Festival Meeting

The first Festival Meeting for this year's festival, (July 13, 14, & 15) is on Monday, February 12th, 7:00 PM in Gaudete Hall. Jackie has sent emails, so you should have received notice. It will be much appreciated if as many as possible make this initial meeting. Much thanks, see you there.

Advance Notice - First Reconciliation Meeting

There will be a meeting of all parents and children who will be making their First Reconciliation this year. The meeting is scheduled for Sunday, February 25th, 9:15 AM in Gaudete Hall. Please mark your calendars for this important meeting, and make arrangements to be in attendance.

Fish Frys Starting Soon

The first Fish Fry of the 2018 Lenten Season is February 16th, 5:00 to 7:00 PM in Gaudete Hall. As always we will need desserts for the patrons' dinners. If the trend of the last couple of years continues, we will have more people attending, therefore we will need more desserts.

There are 2 flyers located in today's bulletin concerning the fish fry. Please refer to them when considering signing up to work at the fry. If you would like to work the fish fry and are in a dilemma because you have small children; there will be a babysitting service for fish fry workers only. Please call Erin Haws at 330-206-9932, or Tami Lang at 330-807-5616 for details.

There also is a form to fill out so that you may advertise your business on the fish fry placemats. Remember, more people attend the fish frys than just St. Joseph parishioners.

Thank you in advance for your continued support of St. Joseph Fish Frys.

February is Catholic Press Month

The readings today focus on human brokenness, so poignantly expressed by Job, and God's healing, as noted in the Psalm and described in the Gospel. We all experience brokenness in some way at some time in our lives. Today's Psalm says the Lord heals the brokenhearted and binds their wounds. We all need to look for God's healing through the Church and in our heart, but the busyness of our lives and even in the midst of brokenness, we might lose our sense of connection with God. The Youngstown Diocesan newspaper, the Church and how God is active in the world and our lives. The Exponent's news, commentary, Scripture reflection, and adult faith formation remind us of that sense of meaning and focus on God's presence amidst everything else. If you are not receiving the Catholic Exponent and would like to, please call the rectory.

Church Overseas Combined Collection

Last weekend, the Diocese of Youngstown collected on behalf of Catholic Relief Services for the Church Overseas Appeal, for ministries to needy people. To date St. Joseph Church has collected $725 for this appeal. Thank you to everyone who participated in this collection to maintain these ministries. If you did not have the chance to respond to this appeal last week, and still would like to contribute, you still have time to do so.
