FEAST OF EPIPHANY

Dear Parishioners and Families,

One of my favorite songs comes from the 1972 movie Man of La Mancha. Its lyrics are so fitting this Feast of the Epiphany in which three men followed the Star. Read the lyrics, look up into the heavens and dream.

To dream the impossible dream
To fight the unbeatable foe
To bear with unbearable sorrow
And to run where the brave dare not go

To right the unrightable wrong
And to love pure and chaste from afar
To try when your arms are too weary
To reach the unreachable star

This is my quest
To follow that star
No matter how hopeless
No matter how far

To fight for the right
Without question or pause
To be willing to march into hell
For a heavenly cause

And I know If I'll only be true
To this glorious quest
That my heart will lie peaceful and calm
When I'm laid to my rest

And the world will be better for this
That one man, scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce of courage
To reach the unreachable, the unreachable star.

Songwriters: Joe Darion / Mitchell Leigh

Pre-Estate Planning Clinic at St. Joseph

Attorney Meredith Simmons is offering a free legal clinic to all parishioners interested in learning about estate planning. As an adoptive and foster mom, Attorney Simmons understands the importance of protecting your family for the future.

As a member of the parish, Attorney Simmons can help you leave a gift to support the parish in your will. Join us on Saturday, January 19th from 10:30 AM to 12:00 noon in Gaudete Hall to learn about wills, trusts, living wills, healthcare powers of attorney, and durable powers of attorney. Free reviews of current wills will be available after the clinic to all attendees.

Please contact the parish office at 330-628-9941 if you plan to attend.
